

MercEx Elects Leo Melamed

Chicago Bureau

CHICAGO, Jan. 16—Leo Melamed, general partner, Dellsher Investment Co., was elected chairman of the board of governors of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange for a one-year term, according to Everette B. Harris, president. Mr. Melamed succeeds Robert J. O'Brien, president, John V. McCarthy & Co., Inc., under CME rules, a board chairman cannot serve more than two successive terms. Mr. O'Brien will continue as a CME governor.

Mr. Harris also announced the following elections by the CME board: Glenn Anderson, president, Andco Inc., as first vice chairman; Michael Weinberg Jr., treasurer, Weinberg Bros. & Co.; secretary and William C. Muno, secretary-treasurer, Barnes Brokerage Co., treasurer.

CHICAGO DAILY NEWS, Friday, January 17, 1969

35

New Mercantile officers

Leo Melamed (seated center), general partner of Dellsher Investment Co., has been elected chairman of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange's board of governors for a one-year term. He succeeds Robert J. O'Brien, president of John V. McCarthy & Co. Other officers elected were (left to right) Gerald Hirsch, second vice chairman; Michael Weinberg Jr., secretary; William C. Muno, treasurer; and Glenn H. Anderson, first vice chairman.

SKOKIE RESIDENTS Leo Melamed (left), 4626 Elm Terrace, and Daniel Jessor, 4348 Davis, have been elected officers of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, the nation's largest exchange dealing in perishable commodities. Melamed, general partner and founder of Dellsher Investment Co., was elected chairman of the exchange's board of governors for a one-year term; and Jessor, a partner of Miller & Co., commodity broker, was named to the CME board for a two-year term.

Chicago Tribune

MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 1969

MELAMED TO HEAD BOARD AT MERCANTILE

The governing board of the Chicago Mercantile exchange elected Leo Melamed board chairman. Melamed, a general partner of Dellsher Investment company, will serve as chairman for one year. He succeeds Robert J. O'Brien, who will continue as an exchange governor.

The board also elected Glenn Anderson, president of Andco, Inc., as first vice chairman; Gerald Hirsch, a vice president of Saul Stone & Co., as second vice chairman; Michael Weinberg Jr., treasurer of Weinberg Bros. & Co., as board secretary; and William C. Muno, secretary-treasurer of Barnes Brokerage company, as board treasurer. All were elected for one year terms.